

Office of Financial Aid: Dropping a Class

Number Credit Hours Required to Complete

You must complete a minimum number of credit hours each year based on the number of credit hours that you attempt. For a more detailed explanation of this requirement, please visit the college website.

Go to: www.grayson.edu

Click: Getting Started

Click: Financial Aid Opportunities

Click: FAQ & Policies

Click: SAP Policy

You must complete at least 66.67% of your enrollment successfully. To use the chart below, add the hours for which you enrolled in the fall and spring semesters. You must complete no fewer than the corresponding number of hours listed in the right column with a grade of A, B, C, D, P, or S in order to meet this requirement for continuing your financial aid eligibility.

Hours Attempted	Hours Required to Complete
24	16
23	15
22	15
21	14
20	13
19	13
18	12
17	11
16	11
15	10
14	09
13	09
12	08
11	07
10	07
09	06
08	05
07	05
06	04
05	03
04	03
03	02
02	01

- Withdrawals, drops, repeated courses and transfer hours are counted toward the total hours attempted each semester as it relates to the 150% rule. Developmental courses do not count toward the 150% limitation since these classes are not considered a part of the degree audit.
- Your student transcript will be evaluated at the end of the Spring semester, unless you are on an appeal.
- If you are on Academic Appeal for the current semester, please note the following:
 - You must complete the number of hours approved with a current 2.0 GPA or better.
 - You may not withdraw or have any incompletes or F's from any of your classes.