

Grayson County College Student Computer Lab Rules

- Users of the college's computers shall not seek unauthorized access to any computer system or computer account at the college or elsewhere.
- Users of the college's computers shall not intentionally damage or tamper with the software or hardware components of any computer system.
- The college's computers shall not be used to harass, intimidate, or create an offensive environment for other users.
- Users of the lab should maintain a quiet study atmosphere.
- Copyrighted documentation and software shall not be duplicated, photocopied, reproduced, translated, or reduced to any medium or machine readable form in whole or in part.
- Users shall not install software on the college's computers.