Assembly and Distribution of Copies

Assembly

For bound paper copies of the appropriations request, all pages whether produced using ABEST reports, word-processing software, or spreadsheets should be on letter-size paper (8-1/2 x 11) and bound along the left margin in a document with a durable cover. See sample cover sheet on page 9. The appropriations request should be printed on both sides, numbered, and assembled in the manner described in these instructions. Additional support documents may be included and a pagination system other than the ABEST report system may be used.

These instructions and word processing and spreadsheet forms may be accessed on the LBB website (<http://www.lbb.state.tx.us>). Agencies may create and modify these forms as needed as long as the basic information and structure are maintained.

ABEST reports are generated through the Internet. For additional information regarding ABEST reports, refer to instructions contained in Preparing and Submitting Legislative Appropriation Requests (LARs) in ABEST or contact the ABEST Help Desk at (512) 463-3167.

It is suggested that request documents be assembled in the following order:

Grayson County College, a premier regional college serving Grayson and Fannin counties, continues its dynamic pursuit of fulfilling the lifelong learning needs of its constituents. With campuses in Denison and Van Alstyne, and an extension site in Bonham, Grayson College is committed to equipping area citizens and businesses with the "state-of-the-market" skills necessary for lifetime effectiveness. With viable support from the state of Texas, GCC will succeed because of its keen focus on the symbioses or "interdependencies" that exist in a community.

Grayson County College endorses the additional formula request that was made on July 31, 2008 by the Texas Association of Community Colleges

STRATEGY DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

A major segment of the mission of Grayson County College is to provide quality postsecondary academic instruction that is conveniently located in our service area and is at a lower cost than instruction from universities

Addressing this mission is the justification for Grayson County College's Academic Education strategy

EXTERNAL/INTERNAL FACTORS IMPACTING STRATEGY:

External factors that impact Grayson County College's Academic Education strategy include (1) higher costs for gasoline and other items that will make it harder for our students to afford an education and will increase our costs; (2) slower growth in the economy as a whole and in our service area that will lessen the number of students we can attract in the future; (3) responding positively to state-wide initiatives such as "Closing the Gaps."

Internal factors that impact this strategy include communicating our vision and mission clearly to all stakeholders; fostering a high level of teamwork among our faculty and staff; and providing a solid network of internal controls to safeguard the public assets in our trust

STRATEGY DESCRIPTION AND JUSTIFICATION:

A major segment of the mission of Grayson County College is to provide quality vocational and technical education to students in our service area. This allows these students to significantly raise their standard of living while it provides needed skills in our area. We strive to provide this instruction in a convenient location and at an affordable cost.

Addressing this mission is the justification for Grayson County College's Vocational/Technical Education strategy.

EXTERNAL/INTERNAL FACTORS IMPACTING STRATEGY:

External factors that impact Grayson County College's Vocational and Technical Education strategy include higher costs for gasoline and other items that will make it harder for our students to afford an education and slower growth in the general economy and in our service area that will lessen the potential number of future students.

Internal factors that affect this strategy include communicating our vision and mission clearly to all stakeholders; fostering a high level of teamwork among our faculty and staff; and providing a solid network of internal controls to safeguard the public assets in our trust.
