

Abstractions

September 30 – October 18, 2019

The 2nd Floor Gallery

*Grayson College / Arts and Communications Center
6101 Grayson Drive / Denison, TX*

In the 20th century, scientific theories were changing our understanding of the nature of the universe while artists were experimenting extensively with ideas concerning our perception of the world in which we live. From Picasso and Braque to Kandinsky and Matisse, abstract art takes many different forms and has varied meanings. From breaking down reality, to helping to see the essence of our world more clearly, abstract art can open possibilities and understandings.

The Abstractions exhibition asks artist to explore the possibilities of abstracting reality, finding new meaning and significance. This exhibition encourages artists to explore the creative possibilities of breaking down images and forms to create new ways of seeing and understanding our world.
