Academic Advisor Appeal Agreement

To be completed by your Success Coach and submitted with your Financial Aid Appeal

The student must submit the completed form as part of their Financial Aid Appeal. The information provided on this form will serve a vital role in the Appeals Committee's decision-making process. Completion and submission of this agreement does not guarantee the Financial Aid Appeal will be approved. The student will be notified of the Appeals Committee's decision via their Viking student email within 1-2 weeks of submission.

Additional Comments:

If this appeal is approved, the student is required to:

1. Demonstrate progression towards achieving a degree or certificate from Grayson College. At the end of each semester, the Office of Financial Aid will review the Academic Plan agreement for the possibility and probability of the student graduating within the allotted time frame.
2. Make a term GPA of 2.5
3. Complete 75% of all courses attempted during the term.
4. Only take courses that apply toward the completion of the approved degree audit.
5. If not enrolled, an approved appeal will expire after two semesters.

Completion of this form does not guarantee the Financial Aid appeal will be approved.
