The Department of Education has flagged your FAFSA for unusual enrollment history because you may have received Federal Pell Grant and/or Federal Direct Loan funds at multiple institutions during the review period 2018-2019, 2019-2020, 2020-2021, and 2021-2022. This flag requires our institution to review your enrollment history and determine eligibility for student aid. If the Admissions Office has your official transcripts, we can access copies of the transcripts on file; if not you will need to provide those transcripts yourself.
